STRATEGIC 2022-25 PROCESS

The Dun Laoghaire Rathdown Drug and Alcohol Task Force (DATF) is currently formulating a new Strategic Plan for the period 2022-25.

This planning process has commenced. In addition to internal consultations, it will also have an external stakeholder consultation, April–June 2021, which will have two elements.

- Consultation meetings
- Written submissions

1. CONSULTATION MEETINGS

The Consultation meetings will be online, and framed around five themes as follows:

Adult substance misuse	Thursday, April 29, 11am-1pm
Alcohol & drugs: Young people's voices	Tuesday, May 4, 6.30-8.30pm
Substance misuse prevention and education	Thursday, May 6, 11am-1pm
Services for children, young people and families affected by substance misuse	Thursday, May 13, 11am-1pm
Substance misuse and wider social and community issues	Tuesday, May 25, 11am-1pm

2. WRITTEN SUBMISSIONS

The Task Force will issue an invitation to local bodies and members of the public to make written submissions to the consultation process.

- A wide scope of submissions is envisaged, and the Task Force will issue guidelines for submission on April 16.
- The final date for submission will be June 4.
- A consultant is being appointed by the Task Force to review submissions.

It is expected that the Stakeholder Consultation process will be completed by June 18.

The Task Force's current Strategic Plan is available on our website

The Task Force Strategic Plan takes direction from the Government's National Drug Strategy, 2017–25, Reducing Harm Supporting Recovery (RHSR)
